Graduate Program Information Template
For Inclusion On
Coalition for Health Communication (CHC) Website

Thank you for becoming a member health communication program of the CHC Website!!

Please fill in the following information for your program, save it as a Word document, and return to Elaine Hsieh at ehsieh@ou.edu.

If you have any questions or concerns as you complete the template, feel free to e-mail Elaine.

To expedite the posting of this information on the CHC website, return this completed form ASAP.

- Name of College or University:

- Department: In which department is your health communication program located? If your program is a joint program between two departments, please list both departments.

- Overview of Program: In 150 words or less (using the textbox below), please provide an overview of your health communication graduate program. (This overview should encourage potential students to look into your program further using the link to your school that will be included on the website…so don't feel pressured to fit your entire program into 150 words. Outline the basics and the highlights of your program—it might be helpful to include aspects of your program that make it unique to further encourage potential students to find out more.)

- Faculty: Please list the faculty members that are part of your health communication program. Include where the faculty member's highest degree is from and their research and teaching areas.

- Courses: Please list only the titles of your graduate or undergraduate/graduate level courses students take as part of your health communication program. Include an asterisk (*) next to those courses for which you have a syllabus posted on your program website.

- Summary of Department Research Completed or in Process: Please list ongoing and recently completed research projects from your health communication program. This is a good place to highlight any grants your department has received in the context of the projects that are being funded.

- Contact Person: Please include the following information for the contact person for your health communication program.

    - Name:
    - Address:
    - Email:
    - Phone:
    - Fax:
    - University Website:
    - Departmental Website:

- Logo: Please include your university or college logo (in .jpg format) so we can use it as the hyperlink to connect back to your program webpage.

- Backlink: Please provide a link to the CHC website on your health communication program page (healthcommunication.net).
